The date is the 16th November 1924. Wyvern House is set deep in the English countryside. There is said to be a curse that strikes down the new brides of the family's oldest sons. Sir Richard, the eldest son, is in love with the lovely Alice Grey, a society beauty. She has refused to marry him if he insists on living in the old family home, as she is afraid of the curse. Sir Richard decides to engage the services of a well-known clairvoyant, Esme Cridge to spend the night in the house, along with several witnesses, to prove to Alice that the curse does not exist. On a stormy night his guests assemble for the occasion. Will all survive!?
